- Media Project Manager
- Programme Coordinator (Audio-Visual Media)
- Station/Broadcast Manager (Audio-Visual Media)
- Account/Divisional Manager (Media Organisation)
- Senior Manager (Media Organisation)
- Media Director (Media Organisation)

What are the Programme Outcomes?

On completion of the programme, graduates will have the necessary knowledge and practical skills required to:

- Demonstrate an understanding of both the national and international media operations environments.
- Demonstrate an understanding of the legislative framework regulating the media environment in terms of its impact on a media organisation.
- Apply principles of research to investigate media operations issues.
- Apply the principles of business management in the media environment.
- Apply the principles of integrated marketing communication.
- Explain the economic environment in which a media organisation functions.
- Apply financial principles to support operational efficiency.
- Apply project management principles in support of a media operations project.
- Apply communicative competence in interpersonal and organisational liaison.

How many subjects can I take each semester?

Minimum is one (1) subject per semester; this will ensure students remain academically active. The maximum number of subjects you can take in any one semester is dependent on the number of credits per subject. It is not recommended for students to take in excess of seventy (70) credits per semester. For the number of credits per subject see curriculum above.

- The lectures for Semester 1 commence on the 17th of February 2020.
- The lectures for Semester 2 commence on the 6th of July 2020.

What do I require to Pass a Subject?

Students will need an aggregate mark of fifty percent (50%) to pass a subject. The pass mark for the computer modules is 75%.

Students may not progress to any subjects scheduled in level 4 (4th year) of the programme unless a pass mark has been achieved for Business Management 3 and Media and Globalisation 3.

How is the Overall Mark Calculated?

The aggregate (overall) mark will be calculated from the student's performance on formative and summative assessments.

Where do I complete my Assessments?

All students must complete their assessments at the campus where they are registered.

Can I further my studies when I graduate?

The qualification is registered at NQF (HEQSF) Level 8 and will provide for articulation options into NQF (HEQSF) Level 7, 8 and 9 qualifications. Graduates may proceed to Advanced Diplomas, Postgraduate Diplomas, Honour's degrees or Master's degrees in a variety of disciplines at public universities, private or foreign higher education institutions. In order to gain entry into these programmes students will have to meet the admission and selection criteria of the receiving institution.

Certification

Upon successful completion of the qualification, students will receive the Bachelor of Business Administration in Media Operations Management (SAQA ID 90664), NQF (HEQSF) Level 8 (Minimum Subject Credits 498, plus 5 Due Performance (DP) Credits at NQF Level 4) from Boston Media House.

International Recognition

This qualification is accredited by the Council on Higher Education (CHE), is registered on the NQF (HEQSF) by the South African Qualifications Authority (SAQA) and the institution is registered by the Department of Higher Education and Training as a Private Higher Education Institution (PHEI) to offer the qualification.

The DHET is a department of National Government, and both the CHE and SAQA are statutory bodies, as such these entities are recognised globally. Therefore, the qualifications/institutions that are accredited/licensed by them are accepted/recognised throughout the world by other government departments and by their respective agencies such as World Educational Services (WES) and other prominent authorities for purposes of equivalence/articulation i.e. employment/labour certification or further studies.

This is a quid pro quo arrangement amongst United Nations Member States; as the DHET, CHE and SAQA similarly recognises other nation/states' qualifications/institutions for equivalence/transferring to South Africa i.e. a United Kingdom or Zambian Bachelor's of Arts awarded by a public university or private degree granting college which is accredited/licensed in accordance with the United Kingdom or Zambian legislative and statutory requirements, will be equivalated/recognised as such in South Africa. Similarly, the SADC Protocol on Education and Training, which is a legal framework for regional cooperation, provides for the recognition the equality of all Member States.

It must be noted that qualifications will be recognised and that curricula specific evaluations may lead to additional requirements for students to meet in order to gain entry into foreign programmes or professions, which is the prerogative of the receiving institution/body.

For more information pertaining to direct international linkages/relationships visit the websites of the DHET, CHE, SAQA, CHEA and WES.

How do I Apply?
